EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not). Misnumbered claims 41-52 have been renumbered as 43-54.

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Misnumbered claims 41-52 have been renumbered as 43-54.

Remarks

In the Office Action, mailed October 22, 2004, the examiner noted in the Claim Objections section the following:

(Paragraph 1 of Office Action mailed October 22, 2004)

The Preliminary Amendment, dated October 2, 2003, cancels claims 1-40 and adds 41-52. However, the original claims are from 1-42. Claim 41 depends from claim 1, and claim 42 depends from claim 41. Further, the applicant states that "Claims 41-52 are presented for consideration in lieu of claims 1-40." It is clear that there is a typographical error. Thus, the examiner has corrected the Preliminary Amendment (page 17) to cancel claims 1-42. The pending claims have been renumbered as noted below. Claims 43-54 are pending.

Further in the Office Action, mailed October 22, 2004, the examiner indicated that "Misnumbered claims 41-52 have been renumbered as 43-54." However, the examiner indicated that the claims were to be renumbered under the Claim Objections section. Thus, the claims were not amended properly in an Examiner's Amendment. In the Amendment, dated January 24, 2005, the applicant stated: "Applicant confirms that the Examiner's renumbering is correct and apologizes for any confusion in the record."

To clarify the record, the examiner has made an Examiner's Amendment (above) to clarify that 43-52 were pending prior to Applicant's Amendment, dated January 24, 2005. Applicant's Amendment, dated January 24, 2005, canceled claims 49-54. Thus, claims 43-48 are currently pending.

Further, the claims listed in Applicant's Amendment, dated January 24, 2005, are the pending claims and correctly numbered.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 43-48 are allowed.
